Advance your career in Marketing

Through Northeastern University’s Graduate Certificate in Marketing, you will have the opportunity to gain the core knowledge and skills necessary to carry out essential marketing functions—from branding new products to advertising services and exploring new consumer audiences.

A FOCUSED CURRICULUM TO TARGET YOUR GOALS

The D’Amore-McKim School of Business creates a rich learning environment where theories and concepts are applied to real-world business issues. You will identify innovative solutions to industry problems. By sharing your experience and learning from your classmates, you can gain the skills you need to advance your career.

This flexible, part-time program will help you enhance your understanding of marketing fundamentals to build customer connections through targeted messaging and advertising. Your coursework will introduce theories and case studies, exploring ways to influence behavior and drive customers to make purchase decisions. You may explore the latest trends in technology and new media, their effect on marketing goods and services and how to deliver value using the latest technologies. Expand your knowledge of mobile platforms, branding, social networks, and technology adoption in emerging markets.

In this program, you will take 4 classes to help you advance your knowledge and abilities in marketing and accelerate your career. Your coursework will include:
